Lone Star Storytellers Audition FAQs – 2018

What will Lone Star Storytellers do?

Lone Star Storytellers (ages 9-18) learn, craft, and perfect a five minute spoken story. They perform these stories at various venues throughout Frisco, culminating in performances at the Lone Star Storytelling Festival on Oct. 11-13, 2018. Lone Star Storytellers share the stage with professional storytellers and may be selected to perform for thousands of students during FISD Field Trips to Dr. Pepper Arena.

What are the benefits to becoming a Lone Star Storyteller?

- Develop public speaking skills and build confidence.
- Become part of a professional storytelling troupe and contribute to the Frisco arts community.
- Showcase your talent through performances in the Frisco community.

What is the program curriculum for students?

- Attend (with a guardian) orientation on Wednesday, August 8 from 3-4pm or 7-8:00pm (mandatory for new students).
- Complete at least seven free, one-hour coaching sessions provided by storytelling professionals on staff at the Frisco Public Library and from the Frisco community.
- Perform at one community concert held at various venues throughout Frisco.
- Perform before family and friends at mandatory dress rehearsal Monday, October 8, 2018 from 6:30-7:30 pm.

- Perform during the Festival on Friday and/or Saturday, October 12-13, 2018.

How are Lone Star Storytellers selected?

- Auditions will be judged by a panel of storytelling professionals assembled by the Frisco Public Library.

What needs to be on the audition DVD or YouTube performance?

- Record the student telling a memorized story of his or her choice – no reading from books or scripts please. Students may not use DVD performances from previous years' festivals.
- The audition story should be no more than five minutes long. Please do not record the audition outdoors.
- Make sure student states their full name and the name of the story at the beginning of the audition.
- Write the student's name on the actual DVD with a black Sharpie.
- If selected, the student may be approved to tell the same story at the Festival that they auditioned with or may be asked to select a new story. All stories chosen for the Festival must be approved by coaches.
- Auditions must be recorded on a PC formatted CD or a DVD that can be played in a DVD player. Students may also upload the audition to YouTube. YouTube links may be emailed directly to bbarber@friscotexas.gov.

How do I submit an audition?
